

SUBJECT AREA GRID

This ten-page grid indicates the subject areas in which each press has a particularly strong interest.

Some presses are prepared to consider manuscripts of outstanding quality in areas other than those listed. For more detailed descriptions of press editorial programs and staff contacts, you should purchase a copy of the 2018 Membership Directory, and consult the individual press listings. Directories are available in both print and digital editions and can be ordered through the University of Chicago Press.
